

Please do not enact any proposal that would weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. Our dinnertime is much more pleasant now that we receive fewer unwanted calls. This is an extremely popular law here in Indiana, and almost everyone here would like to keep our current (stronger) protections